

CIDNEY WILCOX

Chef CIDNEY, Personal Chef Artist

Chef CIDNEY Wilcox's culinary journey spans over two decades and stretches from coast to coast. A classically trained chef and proud graduate of Johnson & Wales University, she has honed her craft in kitchens across the U.S., earning acclaim for her bold flavors and globally inspired comfort food.

Her career highlights include cooking for A-list celebrities such as rapper T.I., Da Brat, and NBA player Patty Mills during her time in Atlanta, as well as competing on national television. She made memorable appearances on Guy's Grocery Games (Season 5) and Chopped (Season 58), where she clinched a win in Round 1.

Drawing from her roots and culinary influences, Chef CIDNEY has developed a unique "South x South" style—fusing Southern U.S., Bahamian, and Mexican flavors. Her menu is as dynamic as it is soulful, crafted to spark connection, culture, and community with every bite.
